November 19, 1962

NSC REVIEW COMPLETED, 7/2/03.

NSC Executive Committee Record of Action, November 19, 1962, 10:00 AM Meeting No. 27

- .. Director McCone summarized the weekend intelligence and commented on Cuban orders to their antiaircraft units to fire on reconnaissance planes.
- 2. Secretary Rusk reported on yesterday's McCloy-Kuznetsov talk.
- 3. Following a general discussion of the need for overflights and the effect of such flights on the Cubans and the Russians, the President authorized high-level reconnaissance missions today but no low-level sorties.
- 4. There was a discussion of the President's press statement for tomorrow. The President asked that two drafts be ready this afternoon; one for use if the Russians have replied on the IL-28 bombers and another if no reply has been received or if the reply is ambivalent.
- 5. The President reviewed the political and military actions which may have to be taken this week. He requested that recommended courses of action be presented later today for his consideration.
